Joan Lahart-Van Bortel Scholarship Application

Application deadline is April 1 prior to the academic year you are admitted.

Scholarship Information

The Joan Lahart-Van Bortel Scholarship Fund was created through the University of Iowa Foundation by Brett Van Bortel in memory of his wife, Joan Lahart-VanBortel who died in the September 8, 1994, USAir crash near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. This fund was created to provide a scholarship to an incoming female student who is a resident of Lucas County, Iowa, or who graduated from a Lucas County high school and who demonstrates financial need and academic promise. If no qualified applicant is found, entering female freshmen from Monroe, Marion, Wayne or Appanoose, Iowa, may be considered in descending order of preference.

One scholarship will be awarded each year. The amount of the scholarship will vary depending on available funding. This scholarship is not renewable.

Scholarship Requirements

The applicant must:

- be an incoming female freshman at The University of Iowa
- be a graduate from a Lucas County high school (first preference) or a graduate from Monroe, Marion, Wayne, or Appanoose Counties (if no qualified applicant from Lucas County)
- have demonstrated academic achievement and future potential in high school along with community service and leadership
- demonstrate financial need by submitting the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
