Introduction

Iowa Code Section 261E.2 and Section 487(a)(25)(A) of the Higher Education Act (HEA) requires The University of Iowa to develop, administer, and enforce a code of conduct governing educational loan activities. Educational loan activities are those associated with any loan made, insured, or guaranteed under the Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP) or any private educational loan. Loans issued to student or parent borrowers under the FDLP are the federal Stafford, parent PLUS, Grad PLUS, and Consolidation loans.

A private educational loan is any loan that is not made, insured, or guaranteed under Title IV of the Higher Education Act and is issued to a borrower expressly for postsecondary educational expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the institution that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the lender. Private educational loans secured by a dwelling (e.g., a residential mortgage or reverse mortgage transaction), real property, or under an extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan (e.g., a home equity line of credit, or open line of credit tied to a Certificate of Deposit) are exempted from the definition of private educational loan.

All of the following individuals or entities associated with The University of Iowa must comply with this code of conduct governing educational loan activities:

- An employee
- A contract employee
- A director or officer
- A trustee
- An agent – including an alumni association, booster club, or other organization directly or indirectly associated with or authorized or employed by The University of Iowa.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.2(1) and 261E.1(2) and (3); HEA Sections 487(a)(25)(A) and 151 Definitions (1)

An organization that is affiliated with The University of Iowa must comply with certain aspects of the code of conduct, as identified below, if the organization is engaged in the practice of recommending, promoting, or endorsing education loans for families and students who attend The University of Iowa. An organization is affiliated with The University of Iowa if it is directly or indirectly related to The University of Iowa and includes, but is not limited to, alumni organizations, foundations, athletic organizations, social, academic, and professional organizations, and others that provide financial and vocational services to The University of Iowa's students, employees or alumni. An organization does not need to be dependent on The University of Iowa to be affiliated. An educational loan lender is not an affiliated organization.

HEA Section 151 Definitions (5); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(iii); November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61979

This code of conduct must be published prominently on The University of Iowa's internet site. At least annually, The University of Iowa's officers, employees, and agents must be informed of the provisions of this code of conduct.

Iowa Code Section 261E.2(1)(b); HEA Section 487(a)(25)(B) and (C)

The University of Iowa's code of conduct also addresses changes brought about by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-315) and inducement regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) in 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5) and 34 CFR 682.401(e). These federal laws and regulations set forth standards for relationships between colleges and universities, their affiliated organizations, and private lenders.
